What we've been learning recently

A huge congratulations to all our Year 6 children for completing your SATs. Over the past week, you have shown such determination, resilience, and maturity, and you should all be incredibly proud of yourselves. SATs are just one small part of your journey, and they do not define the amazing individuals you are or all the talents, kindness, and potential you each have. What has truly stood out is the effort, perseverance, and positive attitude you have shown throughout.

Now it is time to look ahead and enjoy the special memories still to come - from plays and proms to residential and celebrations. You have worked so hard, and you have absolutely earned the chance to enjoy every moment. Well done, Year 6 - we are all so proud of you.

Over the next fortnight we will be...

Next week, we'll be holding auditions for our school play (title to be confirmed!), and we'd love to encourage all children to get involved and give it a try. Taking part is a fantastic opportunity to build confidence, have fun, and create lasting memories.

We'll also be deciding on our prom theme, so there will be lots of exciting discussions and opportunities for children to share their ideas and creativity. Alongside this, we'll begin thinking about fundraising ideas to help make these special Year 6 events even more memorable. There's so much to look forward to, and we can't wait to see the enthusiasm and imagination our Year 6 children bring to the week ahead.
